£24.95

Bright pink in colour and nose packed with raspberry and heady flowers. A juicy palate and delightfully tart, with a host of fresh berries welcoming you to summertime.

WHITESCountry/Region Price per bottle*Pierre Lamotte Chardonnay Bourgogne France £24.95

Generous and seductive nose with notes of nectarine and acacia. Exotic fruits are also found on the elegant and well rounded palate.

Beauvignac Picpoul de Pinet Languedoc, France £25.95

The "trendy" grape in most Southern French bistros. Ideal with fish.

Pipoli Greco Fiano Veneto, Italy £26.95

Highly fragrant with notes of peach, freshly cut flowers and a subtle hint of fennel.

Fairhall Cliffs Sauvignon Blanc Marlborough, New Zealand £27.95

From one of the oldest vineyards in Marlborough and reflects what this region is all about – purity, freshness and aromatics.

Brotte Esprit Cotes du Rhone £28.95

Notes of summer-sweet blueberries and black-cherry preserves abound in this fresh-fruited, concentrated blend with well, integrated oak and tannins.

Russbach Riesling Rheinhessen, Germany £29.95

Classic German Riesling that loves "spicy" food.

Leefield Station Sauvignon Blanc Marlborough, New Zealand £34.95

"Blue Skies, Green Grass, Cold Water" – Brent Marris (the winemaker) reflecting on what New Zealand is all about. Like Sancerre on "steroids".

Marc Bredif Vouvray Loire, France £39.95

Stunning Chenin Blanc – easily the best that "Robb Brothers" have tasted.

Domaine Pierre Martin Sancerre Loire, France £42.95

From a small family owned vineyard, producing a more modern, fuller and richer style.

Pascal Bouchard Chablis Burgundy, France £49.95

Chablis should be the purest expression of Chardonnay; a glass of pure elegance.

La Crema Saralee's Vineyard Chardonnay River Valley USA £69.95

Delicate notes of quince, citrus blossom, and brioche on the nose. Flavours of lemon curd, fresh apricot, and toasted hazelnut. Bright acidity with a long-refined finish.

REDSCountry/Region Price per bottle

Primo Sangiovese Merlot Puglia, Italy £22.95
Sangiovese – the “Chianti” grape is blended with Merlot – the “Bordeaux” grape to create this ultra smooth super Tuscan lookalike.

Cappuccino Pinotage Paarl, South Africa £24.95
As it says on the tin – espresso coffee, vanilla and chocolate complimented with creamy cherry fruit.

Fantini Montepulciano D’Abruzzo Abruzzo, Italy £25.95
This Montepulciano D’Abruzzo is a juicy, mouth filling red loaded with dark fruit supported by a streak of minerality that provides focus on length.

Novecento Malbec Mendoza, Argentina £26.95
Velvety and Vivacious! Ripe, juicy flavours of blackberries, cherries and plums lead to notes of exotic spice on the finish.

Zabu Il Passo Verde Sicily Italy £29.95
Nero D’Avola (Organic)
This Nero D’Avola is bursting with red cherries and berry fruit, supported by floral and balsamic notes. Long-lasting palate that is richly flavoured with lovely hints of wildflower and supple tannins.

Garzon Tannat Uruguay £32.95
Beautiful aromas of raspberry and red cherry with robust flavours of black plum, rhubarb and tobacco mixed with dark chocolate and pepper. There is brilliant tension between silky tannins and subtle fruit.

Domaine Moillard Fleurie Beaujolais, France £35.95
France’s hidden secret; - Beaujolais is soft in acid, low in tannins and always fruit forward.

Muga Rioja Reserva Spain £44.95
Good Rioja should be “like walking through a forest, after rainfall – with uplifting forest floor aromas, mushrooms, wood bark and scents of ripening hedgerow fruit.”

Two Paddocks Picnic Pinot Noir Central Otago, Australia £48.95
From Sam Neill’s winery – a “Jurassically” sensational Pinot Noir. Endorsed by a lot of great restaurants.

Fleur de Fonplegade Grand Cru St. Emilion France £50.95
Only Merlot gives you that unforgettable scented perfume and Fleur Fonplegade is a brilliant example.

Glaetzer Anaperanna Shiraz-Cabernet Barossa Valley, Australia £79.95
Seamless fusion of two varieties – Shiraz and Cabernet. It is the epitomy of power, grace and elegance.
